

Purpose:

Beaufort Cottage Educational Trust Educational Project Application

These awards are intended to support any project which will provide educational opportunities to young people interested in a career in the equine industry.

What's included?

The awards are flexible: for example they can be used to support an individual or group activity with an educational aim (including travel costs) or to purchase equipment (including software) that will be used for research and teaching.

Eligibility:

We are willing to consider applications from any individual involved in the equine industry. This might be to support work or travel they plan to undertake themselves or an application intended to support a project involving supervision of one or more young people interested in a career in the equine industry.

Application Process:

The applications should be emailed to beaufortcottageet@gmail.com and should consist of no more than two sides of A4 (Times New Roman, minimum font size 12, in pdf format) describing:

1. Background and reasons for study
2. Specific study aims
3. Study design/plan of work
4. Project timelines
5. Summary of the skills the applicant or individual(s) supervised by the applicant will gain
6. Relevance to the Thoroughbred
7. Budget: If your application involves support for young people, you should budget to remunerate them at the equivalent of the real living wage (<https://www.livingwage.org.uk/what-real-living-wage>)

Awarded scholarships:

Payments will require submission of receipts.

Reports

At the end of the project, the successful applicant must provide a written report on the project. In addition, the successful applicant, or individuals supervised by the applicant, must travel to Newmarket complete (usually during the September-December term) in order to present the results to a group of clinicians and researchers.

Deadlines and Timelines

Applications can be submitted at any time but we prefer to receive applications during February each year. Applications should be submitted to: beaufortcottageet@gmail.com. The deadline for submission of verbal and written reports from successful applicants is 31 December annually.
